FIRE HAZARD NOTICE

Forest fire danger for several years will be greater than usual. So much work must be done by public agencies to reduce hazard along roadsides near improved and other exposed areas that many places will remain hazardous for some time to come. INDIVIDUAL LANDOWNERS MUST TAKE A PERSONAL INTEREST! Aid in clean-up work through the Agricultural Conservation Program is available to any woodland owner at $4.00 per acre up to 15 acres. The County Agent should be consulted.

Support your local forest fire Wardens and Deputies. They are planning with State and Federal agencies, an intensive campaign to control fires. Help them by strict observance of the fire laws. Cooperate by reporting fires you may see and in other ways. Fire fighting tool supplies are inadequate and should be reasonably increased by many towns. KINDLE NO OPEN FIRES WITHOUT A PERMIT FROM THE WARDEN EXCEPT WHEN THE GROUND IS COVERED WITH SNOW. YOU CAN HELP, AND IT WILL PAY TO PREVENT FOREST FIRES.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board and Citizens of Hollis:

I hereby submit my third annual report. I desire to cover briefly three topics; Policy, Personnel, and Recommendations.

Policy

Schools close one Friday night with the nation at peace. They reopen Monday at war. Instead of a helper we are a participant with the other democracies. Naturally the policy of schools changes to meet existing conditions. As I see it, essential school services are not to be dropped but rather their emphasis changed. We dislike to think of abandoning the fundamental training but feel proud that we may have a part in directing pupil activities into desirable duties for our country's welfare and for post-war America.

What can the schools do to help? We are already salvaging waste paper and materials. We have helped raise funds for the Red Cross and other agencies. Health and physical efficiency are being promoted. We are making provision for the protection of pupils during Air Raids. We are re--emphasizing the ideals of democracy. We are helping to maintain the morals of our pupils at a calm and quiet level. We are definitely sustaining loyalty to America. We have even released workers to produce some of the products needed for the people. We hope to graduate some of the workers needed for war industries and services.

Personnel

"This subject is by far the most important matter educationally at the present time because there is a serious shortage of trained teachers and a more serious shortage of teachers about to enter training." Thus writes my predecessor in his first report twenty-two years ago. I might well have written the same sentence for this report. As was true in his time so is it true now that low salary is largely to blame for the shortage. But added to this is the tremendous demand made upon labor, man or woman, to fill positions in our war industries, governmental agencies, and the fighting forces. People who would become teachers are being attracted into other channels.

Hollis knows what teachers changes are and the difficulties of replacement. Last summer there were two changes made besides the return of Miss Pitman and the selection of a teacher for the new Home Economics position. Mr. Blodgett and Miss Waite resigned to accept more lucrative positions elsewhere and Mr. Donald Harmon of Raymond and Miss Iris Valley of Lincoln were chosen to succeed them. Miss Barbara Rowe of Charlestown was elected to the new Home Economics position. But, if the above was difficult, the changes during the year were no mere trivialities. Mr. Samuel T. Fuller of Conway was chosen to succeed Mr. Snell as the latter was released to Milford. Then came the Pearl Harbor incident and Mr. Fuller was recalled to the service. Recently, Mr. Stewart McCormack of Newmarket succeeded Mr. Fuller. No further changes are anticipated.

Recommendations

I hope that the budget as presented will be adopted, as it provides funds sufficient to maintain a fair level for salaries. Any reduction in the amount available for the teachers would seriously handicap you in obtaining desirable candidates.

I trust that funds will be made available to purchase the additional equipment necessary to conduct sewing classes next year. It is my opinion that this equipment will cost less than that needed to start the Home Economics courses this year.

I am very appreciative of the effective support given my efforts by the School Board, teachers, and citizens. A busy year has passed successfully. We have much to be thankful for as we face the uncertainties of the future.

Very respectfully,

HAROLD C. BOWLEY,

Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF HEADMASTER

Mr. Harold C. Bowley,
Superintendent of Schools
Milford, New Hampshire

I herewith submit my first report as Headmaster of Hollis High School. To me this is a serious task for it should carefully reflect the multiple influences and contributions to the cause of education in Hollis, of others who carried on these duties before my stay here.

Probably the fundamental theory of modern education begins with regarding each pupil as an individual, having individual capacities and the right in the fullest development of those capacities in whatever direction the child's interests and abilities may take. In this sense growth must always come primarily through intelligent acquaintances with one's native surroundings through closer adaptation of the individual to those surroundings and of those surroundings to his own heightening standards of beauty and truth. In such a program the limits in height and breadth are qualified only by one's capacity to grow. Whether the individual is to be a farmer or philosopher, or both, this would seem to be his surest path to success. The possibilities for enrichment of pupil experiences challenges the imagination. In a multitude of ways, schools the country over are trying to meet these challenges. It is the breadth of point of view, the sound judgment, the zeal to follow through what is right, the mastery of skills, the social adjustment and health of the pupil that must be the constant standard by which the curriculum is made.

In keeping with this trend, our able School Board and administrators have offered the following courses to Hollis pupils from grades seven through twelve for this year. Enrollment figures are also shown.

Agriculture 11-12	4	History of Civilization	19
English 11-12	15	Elementary Algebra	6
Physics	9	Latin 1	6
Advanced Math	4	Arithmetic 8	13
Modern History	7	English 8	13
Economics	11	History 8	13
French II	10	Science 8	13
The Home	5	Boys Practical Arts 7-8	17
Agriculture 9-10	13	Girls Practical Arts 7-8	13
English 9-10		Arithmetic 7	17
Foods and Nutrition	18	English 7	17
Biology	32	History 7	17
Typewriting (corres.)	1	Geography 7	17
Radio (correspondence)	1

Such a curriculum together with the alternating courses of next year offer abundant opportunities for the growth of every pupil. To obtain values from his school work, among several important factors, probably none are more important than prompt and constant pupil attendance.

Parents of the following pupils as well as the girls and boys themselves are to be commended for their perfect non-absence record.

For the whole school year 1940 - 1941:

Elementary grades 1-6: Margaret Glover, Martin Budlong, Alberta Cave, Marjorie Glover, Arthur Petry, Richard Duncan, Susie Hadley, Norma Hayden, George Small, Lillian Small.

High School Grades 7-12: Mary Duncan, Thelma Glover, Carolyn Spaulding, Dorothy Small, Dorothy Cave, Mabel Glover, Eleanor Hardy, Eunice Knight, Dudley Lawrence Elwin Muzzey, Frank Whittemore, Richard Sanders.

For the first half year 1941 - 1942:

Elementary grades 1-6: Robert Cave, Ralph Dudley, Maurice Glover, Robert Glover, Janice Marvell, Rudge Petry, Donald Brown, Martin Budlong, Betty Cudworth, Margaret

Glover, Arthur Petry, Alice Wildman, Earnest Wildman, Marion Dugas, Shirley Dugas, Alberta Cave, Peter Dubois, Richard Duncan, James Dutton, Olive Glover, Wilfred Knight, Charles Small.

High School grades 7-12: Eleanor Brocklebank, Velma Carlton, Stanley Glover, Thelma Glover, Calvin Knight, George Small, Lillian Small, Sumner Spaulding, Pauline Buckley, Geraldine Denault, Roger Deschenes, Emily Dudley, Charles Fenimore, Roland Hanson, Eleanor Hardy, Ralph Lund, Francis Molis, Louis Rudinsky, Dorothy Small, Sylvia Small, Bancroft Spaulding, Almira Walker, George Welch, Muriel Welch, Chester Whittemore, Frank Whittemore, Mary Worcester.

Such a large list shows that many parents are interested in keeping their pupils in school. An individual learns the habits or promptness and dependability when he is young. Therefore great importance is often attached to school attendance records, and its effect on the later life of the pupil.

A wide range of extra-curricular activities are functioning in the school as usual. Not having had an opportunity to partake in the past functions, I can only judge that they were all highly successful from constant references to them by the pupils. The whole-hearted cooperation of parents and friends of the pupils, in these activities is greatly appreciated.

Within the school there are clubs for Home Economics (Girls), Future Farmers (Boys), and Dramatics. Mr. Priske offers extensive opportunities for musical development of the pupils. They will shortly go into rehearsal for the annual Operetta. Miss Valley will be in charge of Prize Speaking this year which will be open to pupils in the High School. Miss Rideout has charge of the active and interesting quarterly school magazine. She is also entering her pupils in the state-wide Original One-Act Play contest sponsored by the State Board of Education. First Aid Classes have been given bi-weekly during the activity period by Mrs. Ruth Wheeler. About thirty-five pupils will complete this course and thus be better able to carry on during an emergency here or elsewhere. Miss Rowe has a strongly organized noon-lunch program in which her pupils in Home Economics serve in the alternating capacities required in the preparation of large quantities of food. The program is of utmost value both from the learning and health point of view. Mr. Harmon and his shop classes have tried to help in every capacity possible for them, from repairing farm machinery to making a wagon. When we add the athletic program of the school to all the above it is evident that Hollis is offering its youngsters a real chance to make their school life worthwhile.

A school is often judged by the records of its graduates. Those who graduated from Hollis High School in June 1941, and the parts they are playing in our history of graduates are as follows:

Dorothy Cave—Attending Nashua Business College.
Earnest Hardy—Attending Boston Conservatory of Music.
Marion Hayden—Attending University of New Hampshire.
Beverly Lund—Attending Keene Teacher's College.
Elwin Muzzey—Temporarily invalid
Winston Parkhurst—Employed locally.
Richard Sanders—Pratt and Whitney Corp., Worcester.
Mitchell Stearns—Employed locally.
Ralph Strong—Pratt and Whitney Corp., Worcester.

This is a fine record of accomplishments and shows wise fore-thought and guidance of former associates of the graduates and evidences determination on the part of the graduates themselves.

To close my report I wish to express my appreciation to the teachers and parents of our pupils for their patient and splendid support during the past year. It is a pleasant task to work with such a corps of fine spirited citizens, all trying to give each child, to the limit of his capacity, everything he can use in finding his place in the world.

Respectfully submitted,
STEWART V. McCORMACK
